All-American and Pro Star Henry Stanton

The 1937 all-state end at Clifton Union High School, later a football and baseball star at the University of Arizona, was selected first-team All-America end for the Wildcats in 1941, and team MVP. Rebuilding Cats Tackle 1991

Coach Dick Tomey has put a consistent winner on the field for the Arizona Wildcats since his arrival in Tucson four years ago. In fact, his overall mark stands at a solid 26-17-3. His Cats have been consistent first-division finishers in the conference and he still hasn't tasted defeat in the all-important rivalry with Arizona State, having won three and tied one.

But Tomey and his coaching staff figure to be tested to the max this year, as they attempt to keep the winning tradition alive. A very tough schedule. Some serious rebuilding. Several key losses.

Most so-called experts have predicted a second-division Pac-10 position for Arizona. Tomey isn't convinced.

True, most of the 1990 headliners are gone. Darryl Lewis, Jeff Hammerschmidt, Darren Case, Reggie Johnson, Paul Glonek, Art Greathouse, Reggie McGill and Ronald Veal have used up their eligibility and will be difficult to replace. In addition, running back Michael Bates is sitting out the season to concentrate on making the U.S. Olympic team in either the 100 or 200 meters.

So the offensive attack will fall into the hands of veteran George Malauulu and exciting newcomer Charles Levy.

Malauulu, a 5-11, 195-pound junior, was a part-time starter last year. He threw for over 700 yards as the Wildcats finished 7-5 and landed a trip to the Aloha Bowl. The Arizona offense needs consistent play at the quarterback slot and Malauulu certainly has the capabilities to do the job. But will he be consistent?

Levy is a super athlete and maybe an even better football player. Barring injury, this 6-0, 185-pound redshirt freshman has greatness written all over him. He'll play this year at quarterback, running back and/or wide receiver. That is, anywhere the Cats can exploit his tremendous talent.

Mario Hampton, Lamont Lovett and Billy Johnson are expected to do some good work carrying the ball for the Cats in '91. Sophomore Terry Vaughn is a gamebreaker at one of the wideouts and should have more than his share of great moments. Junior Richard Griffith has good size (6-5, 245) and is a quality tight end.

The offensive line is big and has a good blend of experience and youth. The headliners are seniors John Fina (6-5, 265), Paul Tofflemire (6-2, 265), Nick Fineanganfo (6-5, 325) and junior Vincent Smith (6-4, 340). Tomey had penciled in redshirt freshman Mike Ciasca, a former high school All-American at Sahuaro High School, but Ciasca has injury problems that will keep him on the bench for the second year in a row. Depth is a big questionmark here, so some youngsters will have to step up and do the job.

Arizona's front seven on defense will have some new faces this time out. In fact, the defensive line is not well settled at all. Look for junior Ty Parten (6-5, 270) and super soph Rob Waldrop (6-1, 260) to team with former linebackers Jimmie Hopkins (6-4, 250, So.) and Marcel Wade (6-2, 250, Jr.) to dominate the down positions.

Mike Scurlock, a 5-11, 200-pounder, has been moved to one of the inside backer posts, since Gregg Shapiro was forced to give up football because of a spinal disorder. Richard Maddox, Corey Pittman and Sean Harris, among others, should get plenty of playing time in '91.

Despite heavy losses in the secondary, Tomey likes his returnees, namely soph Bobby Roland (5-10, 190), junior Darryl Morrison (5-11, 180), junior Heath Bray (6-3, 200), senior Richard Holt (6-2, 195) and soph Tony Bouie (5-9, 180).

The placekicking duties belong to Steve McLaughlin, while Adam Grand or Josh Miller will be the punter.

The '91 campaign hasn't been particularly kind to the Arizona Wildcats – at least through the month of September. Injuries have been a major problem.

The Cats kicked off the season with a 38-14 defeat at the hands of Ohio State. A stirring comeback in their home opener netted a 28-23 win versus Stanford, but a similar attempt the next week against California fell short. A predictable 45-21 triumph over Long Beach State evened Arizona's seasonal mark at 2-2, but a date in Seattle with the third-ranked Washington Huskies is on tap next.

Heralded frosh Charles Levy has been among the nation's leaders in all-purpose yards and junior signal caller George Malauulu has done a fine job thus far.

EASTERN ARIZONA

The forecast looks bright in Thatcher, where Coach Don Conrad returns 14 lettermen from the best Eastern Arizona club in years.

"This could be our best yet," warns Conrad, whose team finished 4-5-0 in '90. "We have a strong group of line-men back, plus several outstanding running backs. Our defense will be young, but we have some key players returning."

With TB Greg Washington (6-1, 190) and FB Tyrone Waggoner (6-1, 230), the Gila Monsters' backfield is set. With 4.5 speed, Washington is one of Conrad's quickest players. Sophomore John Scroggum (6-0, 185) is the Monsters' field general. Tackle Danny Renteria (6-4, 280) is a top-notch lineman.

Defensively, E.A. has two of the better players in the league with tackle Jason Kilmer (6-3, 270) and safety Clay Emery (6-2, 205) in the lineup.

Conrad is assisted by Dan Dersam, Joey Reidhead, Larry Gibbens, Steve Allen and Dan Battraw. Their schedule, like always, is tough, including road games to Yuma, Rexburg, Idaho, Colorado Springs, and an interesting home encounter with Dodge City, Kansas, on September 28.

ARIZONA WESTERN

The Matadors, which once ruled the state's JC football ranks, have struggled recently, finishing 1-8-0 in 1990. However, coach Steve Casey returns 17 squad members, plus good skill people from an excellent recruiting class two years ago, so improvement is the battle cry.

Stephen Levels (6-1, 225), a linebacker from Michigan; David Andrew (6-4, 180), a wide receiver from Texas; Carlos Beatty (5-11, 180), another receiver from the Longhorn State; and Texan Chris Williams (5-10, 175), a top-notch defensive back, are all-league candidates. All four have good speed and size, and should help the Matadors improve in the standings.

The AWC roster includes players from Arizona to Massachusetts, from New York to Louisiana. The Matadors have played in eight postseason bowl games, the last being the 1981 Valley of the Sun Bowl.

Definitely 5A South Favorites

Some of the biggest news in the 5A South this year is who isn't around any more. Perennial contender Sahuaro has moved down to the 4A ranks, due to declining enrollment. And, of course, Amphitheater is without a Bates for the first time in recent memory.

The Panthers, riding the wings of record-setting Mario Bates, made it all the way to the 5A state finale in 1990. Well, Bates has moved on to Arizona State University and coach Vern Friedli's club will have to fill in the gaps.

And that's exactly what most everyone believes they will do. Amphi and a good group from Salpointe are expected to dominate this region. Canyon del Oro should be good too.

AMPHI

When the gun sounded on the '90 campaign, Friedli and his troops hadn't accomplished everything they had hoped for. But they came awfully close.

A bruising 21-7 loss to Mesa in the 5A title game left the Panthers with a second-place finish. Bates had a magnificent year, rushing for a state-record 2,740 yards and 34 touchdowns. Amphi's runnerup finish was the highest by a 5A Tucson school since Sahuaro bowed to Phoenix St. Mary's in the '84 championship contest.

The deck has been reshuffled now. Not only did Bates leave, but all-everything linebacker Jon McGee, considered by many to be Arizona's finest prep player this year, transferred to Sahuaro.

Still Friedli should field a fine team this year, headed by the likes of Matt Johnson, Matt Jaconski, Eric Hall and Jon Saffer.

Johnson is a good one. At 6-3 and 260 pounds, he figures to do some damage from his tackle position. Jaconski (5-10, 170) is solid at both offensive guard and noseguard.

Saffer (6-2, 205) is extremely versatile, playing wide receiver on offense, in the secondary on defense and handling the placekicking chores.

Hall is a talented running back-defensive back who should shine in his senior campaign. Though not big at 5-7 and 175 pounds, he's certainly a key performer for Friedli.

Don't expect Amphi to replace Bates and McGee, but never sell the Panthers short. They'll be good again in '91.

SALPOINTE

Coach Patrick Welchert returns just nine lettermen from his '90 squad that finished with a nifty 8-3 mark, but the Lancers show promise too. Of course, it helps that one of the returnees is Chris Hopkins, a 6-0, 170-pound senior running back with big-time potential.

Hopkins, the son of former world-class longer jumper Gayle Hopkins, is super quick and has major college potential. His running mate in the backfield will be the bruising Adam McCollum, a 5-9, 225-pound senior fullback who also is Salpointe's main stopper on defense.

Others to watch include defensive linemen Fred Rico (6-2, 260), Josh Puntennez (5-10, 190), tight end Marco Pelazo (6-2, 195) and defensive end Jeff Gerrow (6-2, 205), all seniors.

CDO

One team expected to bounce back from a tough year (2-8) in '90 is Canyon del Oro. Coach Rick Werbyle has 18 Dorado letterwinners on hand as the '91 campaign kicks off.

Foremost among of the veterans are two-way tackle Jeremy Evans (6-3, 215), quarterback-defensive back Jason Verdugo (6-1, 171) and wide receiver-defensive back Junior Rickman (6-2, 169).

Evans earned first-team all-city honors last year on the defensive side of the football. Verdugo and Rickman should team up for some big plays this fall and next, since both are eleventh-graders.

When CDO runs the ball, senior Dennie Hudson (5-10, 168), junior Andy Sense (6-1, 195) and senior Denny Heisey (5-10, 178) should get the call.

In addition to Rickman, Verdugo can look to receivers Mike Medina (5-8, 152) and Remsi Kilani (5-9, 180) to add to the aerial game.

Mainstays in the line include Ritchie Gallagher (5-11, 180) and Jason Herman (5-11, 184).

Salpointe's Chris Hopkins has breakaway speed for the Lancers.

Defensively, Sense, Heisey and Herman will key the linebacking corps, while Gallagher and Kilani will support Evans on the defensive front. The leaders in the secondary should be Hudson, Verdugo, Rickman and Medina.

Graduates from last year's talented junior varsity (8-1 on the year) certainly should help. It looks like a good year for the Dorados.

TUCSON

"We have a good junior class," says head coach Todd Mayfield, "but we need to fill holes in the offensive line and the secondary." Actually, Tucson has some fine seniors too, several of which were outstanding in '90, when Mayfield's crew finished with a 6-4 slate.

The progress of the offensive line will be critical, since the Badgers have one of the best in southern Arizona in senior halfback Terry Underwood.

If the line does its job, Tucson should move the football. Underwood, a 5-9, 180-pound senior, is a returning all-city performer after rushing for over 1,000 yards last time out.

Running the show for Mayfield will be three-year starter Ron Huerta (6-0, 180) at quarterback. Senior Damien Cole (5-10, 170) is expected to start at fullback, while junior Kurt King (5-11, 170) should head the receivers.

The Badger defense is formidable, with the likes of nose guard T.J. Raica (6-0, 215), tackle Tommy Lopez (6-1, 250) and junior Ernesto Escarcega (6-2, 200) working in the trenches. Watch for Cole to team with Manny Romero (5-11, 170) at linebacker and the secondary to feature Alex Ortega (5-10, 170) and Chito Valencia (5-8, 175).

Newcomers to the varsity include quarterback Garth Davies, linebacker-tight end Jerry Waldren and offensive tackle Justin Domagalski.

BUENA

Last year was certainly a rebuilding year for coach Larry Wooldridge and his Colts, who finished with a subpar 3-7 mark. But things could change for the better in '91, especially if Jerald Hancock, Leroy Roar and Matt McCorkle have anything to say about it.

Hancock (6-0, 212) and McCorkle (6-5, 230) will be mainstays in the offensive line and Hancock is mighty tough on defense from his linebacker post.

Roar (5-7, 175) also plays linebacker, but will probably be better known for his work at tailback by the time this season ends. In limited duty last year (39 carries), he managed over seven yards per rushing attempt.

The quarterback position is unsettled, but there's good talent in the trenches, most notably Eric Harnois (5-11, 180), Lee Church (5-11, 210, Jr.), Tim Kovacs (5-11, 210), Rudy Wilson (6-0, 170, Jr.) and Mike Deines (5-10, 220).

RINCON

"We were rebuilding last year, but our outlook is hopeful for '91," says head mentor Lance Prickett, who returns a total of 12 lettermen, including seven starters.

The headliner of the bunch is a great prospect at tight end – 6-5, 220-pound senior Dan Brown. Of course, Brown will need plenty of help if the Rangers are to make substantial improvement over the 1-9 record they compiled at the 4A level last fall.

PUEBLO

Also moving up to play 5A football are the Warriors of Pueblo. Coach Saturnino Santa Cruz has a number of veterans on hand (22 lettermen), but he anticipates inexperience problems at running back and in the offensive line.

Split end Frank Madero (5-10, 165) leads a cast of six returning regulars and he's a good one. Senior quarterback William Urbana (6-4, 190) should have a fine season, if he can locate Madero and tight end Fernando Duarte (5-11, 205) on a regular basis.

Senior center Henry Bustmea (6-0, 190) will anchor the offensive line, while backers Carlos Aruizu (5-11, 195) and Ricardo Sanchez (6-0, 190, Jr.) and ends Harvey Gallegos (6-0, 165) and Eddie Martinez (5-9, 185) will key the defense.

Pueblo's best running back appears to be scatback Tommy Cano, a 5-9, 160-pound senior. The place-kicking chores will be handled by Jose Luis Camacho, who has a strong leg despite his 5-0, 140-pound frame.

The early season has run pretty much to form thus far. Amphi supports a flashy 3-1 slate through September. The Panthers dropped a 6-0 verdict in their opener to Tempe Corona del Sol, the second-ranked 5A team in the state, before taking three wins in a row.

Salpointe has survived a brutal early schedule, but the Lancers have suffered losses to Phoenix St. Mary's and Sahuaro. CDO has demonstrated it can play, with just one loss to date.

Sahuaro, Sabino

Lead Rugged 4A Battle

The football will definitely be flying around in both the 4A Kino and 4A Sonoran Regions this season. Sahuaro has moved down from 5A competition to challenge the likes of Sunnyside, Santa Rita and Nogales in the Kino, while defending 4A state champ Sabino will attempt to hold off the efforts of Mountain View, Desert View and Flowing Wells in the Sonoran.

Whichever of these teams escapes from league play this year should be strong competitors on the state level. In fact, it's very likely that the Arizona 4A champion will come from southern Arizona for the second year in a row after a long drought.

SAHUARO

How can you pick against coach Howard Breinig and the Cougars? They have 23 returning letterwinners from a 5A squad that finished with a glossy 9-2 ledger. They've moved down to the 4A level, although the competition will still be rugged. And a terrific player considered by many to be the best in the state transferred in from Amphitheater.

That would be Jon McGee, a gifted 6-3, 220-pound linebacker who will also play some fullback. McGee earned all-city and all-state accolades last year, while helping Amphi advance to the 5A state finals. He opted to attend Sahuaro this year to close out his prep career rather than pay the additional tuition costs his parents had absorbed the previous three years to attend Amphi. Sahuaro was actually his natural school; in fact, it's within sight on his home.

Needless to say, McGee's decision to transfer kept the summer from being too quiet in the Old Pueblo. His early announcement that he would attend USC also broke some recruiters' hearts, but that's far into the future.

The most important item right now – at least for Sahuaro fans – is how will McGee blend in with his new teammates.

He's expected to team with all-city performers Ryan Hesson and Todd Harris in the offensive backfield.

Hesson (6-2, 195) is a skillful quarterback and Harris (6-1, 180) could lead the Cougars in rushing this year. Seniors Dave Griffin (5-10, 165) and Scott Ford (5-9, 160) will also tote the pigskin.

Senior Tim Bridges, a 6-0, 170-pound senior, is another returning all-city gridder and is Sahuaro's best receiver. Cole Chavez (6-4, 220) plays both tight end and defensive end.

The defense should be outstanding, led by McGee, of course. Other linebacking standouts include seniors Tom Rose (6-1, 210), Don Tramp (6-1, 200) and Todd Swanson (6-2, 203).

Newcomers to the varsity expected to make solid contributions are Jesse Romero, Jason Lopez and Bill Schaidt.

Simply put, the Cougars are loaded and could be one of the best teams in the state regardless of classification.

SUNNYSIDE

Coach Don Fuentes welcomes back an impressive 26 lettermen at Sunnyside and the signs are there that the Blue Devils will be successful again this year.

The top veteran still in uniform is Bobby Felix, the Kino Offensive Player of the Year in '90. This 5-11, 175-pound running back scampered for 1700 yards rushing last year, leading his club to a fine 8-4 mark before Peoria stopped them in the state quarterfinals. Felix is a big-time running back.

While Felix is doing his magic on offense, watch for the Sunnyside defense to rely on all-city backer Henry Castillo (5-11, 185). Jesse Valdez (5-11, 210) is a two-way starter in the trenches.

Additional offensive stalwarts include quarterback Jose Gastelum (6-0, 185), split end Steve Silva (5-10, 145) and fullback George Galaz (5-10, 185, Jr.).

There's good experience in the line, thanks to the presence of tackles Chris Miranda (6-3, 250), Brian Huggins (6-1, 275, Jr.), guard Thad Sorenson (5-10, 205) and center Manny Medina (5-10, 210, Jr.).

And more help is on the way from an outstanding sophomore class, which took the city title with an 8-0 freshman campaign in '90. Watch for the likes of Ralph Rosales, Ernesto Encinas, Jermaine Watts, Richard Lynch, Roman Soto and Alfredo Bustamante to have their moments.

SANTA RITA

When you have a player the caliber of Anthony Sanders, you're always dangerous. And Sanders plays for Santa Rita.

If Jon McGee isn't the best in Tucson, then Sanders is. A super quarterback, this 6-2, 180-pounder completed 220 of 348 passes for 1990 yards and 16 scores last season. In his spare time, he rushed for another 500 yards.

And he has plenty of skill position help. Coach Bob Vielledent is counting on tailback Lance Bennett (5-10, 180), fullback B.J. Clifford (5-10, 185), flanker Toby Paysor (5-10, 175) and wideout Marcus Santini (6-0, 170) to break some big plays for the Eagles.

Also back from last year's 5-5 unit are center Chris McDaniel (6-1, 210), noseguard Rueben Xouchuhua (6-0, 245), linebacker Kevin Harbison (6-1, 190), defensive tackle Robert Ortiz (6-2, 225) and junior linebacker George Flores (5-11, 175).

4A SONORAN REGION

- 1) Sabino
- 2) Mountain View
- 3) Flowing Wells
- 4) Desert View
- 5) Catalina
- 6) Douglas

SABINO

"It was a great season for us," says head coach Jeff Scurran. "We overcame a lot and maintained our family atmosphere."

And it paid big dividends. A perfect 14-0 campaign and the 4A state title with a terrific win over powerhouse Peoria in the finals.

Of course, some of the Sabercats' best from that team have moved on, but linebacker Greg Tellam heads a group of 10 lettermen hoping to make it two in a row.

Tellam (6-4, 210) has major college potential at linebacker. He registered 136 tackles last season, including a remarkable 19 in the championship contest. Other solid defenders are SS Doug Popovich (6-0, 160), DE John Bracale (5-6, 160), LB Sam Blonder (5-8, 160), DE Glen Mastroberte (6-0, 170), DB Casey Davis (6-1, 175, Jr.) and DB Toby Kyte (6-1, 160).

Up from the undefeated JV are Colby Baty, Garnett Hobbs, Ben Thrush, Casey Johnson, Jason Montano, Ian Woodford, Brandon Stine, Brenden Bouton, Jo Jo Jacobs and Chip Snow. Also keep an eye on new running back Delmar Hartsfield (6-1, 195) and transfers Eric Weimeschkirch (5-11, 230, OT), Chase Newell (5-10, 195, LB) and Ken Sarnoski (6-2, 185, RB/DB).

MOUNTAIN VIEW

Mike Villa, a 6-4, 245-pound senior lineman, is a real standout for coach Wayne Jones at Marana Mountain View. He'll see action at both offensive guard and noseguard.

The Mountain Lions have some of the best size in the state, with the likes of TE-LB Kevin Corner (6-4, 210), T Wayne Wyatt (6-4, 245), T Jeremy Findley (6-0, 250), G-LB Graham Ellison (6-4, 200) and TE John Gilbert (6-4, 200).

If Mountain View is to approach last year's 7-4 slate, it needs to develop some running backs. The passing game will feature QB Josh Gray (6-0, 195) and receivers Scott Busby (5-11, 160), Matt Brady (5-11, 175) and Kevin Turra (5-9, 160).

FLOWING WELLS

The Caballeros split their ten-game schedule last year and could easily improve on that mark. Especially if the offense catches up with a gritty defense that has become a Flowing Wells standard.

Coach John Kashner has 14 lettermen back and ready to go, including honors candidate Bo Chatfield, a tough 6-3, 215-pound defensive end.

Other defensive mainstays are NG Chris Villalobos (5-11, 195, So.), DE Houston Greer (5-11, 175), DE Brian McGrath (6-2, 200) and DBs Christian Contreras (6-1, 170), Jay Jenkins (6-2, 185, Jr.), Matt Weber (6-0, 170) and Scott Hatlevig (5-10, 165).

The quarterback should be junior Cleve Gouby, a 6-0, 170-pound who threw for 900 yards in '90. Center Virgil Tucker is an important cog up front.

DESERT VIEW

Bouncing back from a disappointing 1-9 season is the goal of coach Humberto Federico and the Jaguars.

One of Desert View's leaders this year should be veteran guard Willie Walker, a highly regarded 6-4, 275-pounder who could be playing for a West Coast university next season. Joining him up front will be C Bruno Gonzales (5-11, 190), OG Juan Laraz (6-0, 190), OT Frank Kellogg (6-1, 215, Jr.) and TE Steve Hurrell (6-1, 185).

The offensive attack has Adrian Koch (5-9, 150) at quarterback and Javier Lopez (5-11, 165) at split end, along with young running backs Sean Dixon (5-7, 140, Jr.), Al Canez (6-0, 190, Jr.) and Matt Gonzales (5-11, 1670, So.). Keep an eye on Desert View.

CATALINA

Three all-city performers are critical to Trojan fortunes this time around. Senior FB Detrick Gammage (5-11, 210) and linemen Brian Story (6-4, 265) and Craig Cherry (6-0, 240) were honor candidates as juniors.

First-year coach Ted James has only seven lettermen from a 3-7 campaign to work with, including DB Anthony Johnson. LB Jesse Craft, and junior running backs Craig Powell and Sean Morales.

"I'm excited about some of the young athletes and their ability," says James, who used to coach the Trojans and returns after an absence. A good group of juniors from a 5-1-3 JV squad is encouraging.

DOUGLAS

Another first-year coach, Ron Ellsworth at Douglas, has his hands full during a rebuilding season. The Bulldogs finished 7-4 after facing Peoria in the first round of the playoffs, then lost its entire backfield to graduation.

However, four seniors, RB Tom Stone, RB Alex Campas, DE Frank Garcia and QB Robbie Nicolaus could earn all-league honors.

Two guards, Carlos Enriquez (180) and Elzy Estrella (195), plus DE Chris Law (210) and DT Armando Soto (193) are the biggest Bulldogs in camp.

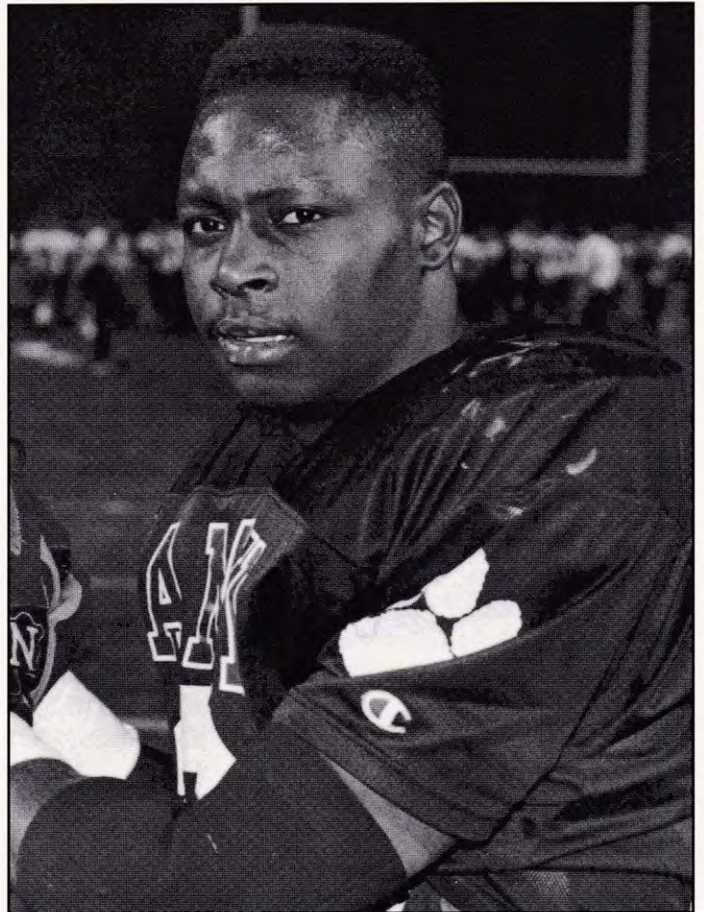

Well, Sahuaro certainly hasn't disappointed so far. The Cougars have jumped out to a sparkling 5-0 record, with wins over Sabino, CDO, Tucson, Salpointe and Douglas. Coach Howard Breinig's bunch — if anything — has been even better than everyone thought they would be.

Sabino has dropped decisions to Sahuaro and Tucson, but the Sabercats still bear watching. Both Sunnyside and Nogales posted 3-1 marks through the month of September.

ACADEMICS

75 YEARS OF ACCREDITATION

Globe High School was the first and only school accredited in 1916. The administration, the faculty, the students and the community share this milestone for providing quality education, alone, in leading the way for other Arizona schools, which now total almost three hundred members in our great state.

Globe High School as the longest continuing NCA school for 75 years of membership was recognized by Jan Regnier, Ed.D., State Director for the Arizona North Central Accreditation Association. This recognition was also on behalf of the Commission on Schools, North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, and the Arizona NCA State Committee.

3A Power Miami Over Coolidge, Eloy, San Manuel

Miami, with 333 wins since 1923, is the winningest football program in the 3A South. Globe, with 300, is close. But don't expect the Tigers to be close to Miami on the field this fall.

And don't expect Bill Johnson's club to struggle early, like last year. The Vandals lost five straight games, then won seven in a row on way to the 3A finals, where they fell to Blue Ridge.

Coolidge and Eloy Santa Cruz, top-notch football rivals, should again be tough. Santa Cruz, the 2A champ, moves up to 3A again. Coach Jay Denton saw graduation wipe out a talented group. Larry Delbridge at Coolidge, with a 75-57-0 record, should soon be the school's first head coach to win 100 games.

Delbridge has been involved in five state titles at Coolidge: two as a player (1967, 1968), one as an assistant (1977), two as a head coach (1983, 1984). As an Arizona State University linebacker, Larry played in three bowl games, intercepting a pass as a soph in the 1971 Peach Bowl in Atlanta.

MIAMI

"The athletes returning for 1991 are talented and hard working," claims Bill

Johnson, whose club finished 7-6. "I'm really excited about working with them and our great staff."

The Vandals have plenty of size, starting with guards like Nick Griego (6-4, 240) and Joe Cano (6-0, 220), to name two. Cano, the 3A state heavy-weight wrestling champ, booted a 46 yard field goal last fall. Signal caller Freddie Burnham (5-11, 165) passed for 963 yards and seven TDs, and ran for five TDs. Two receivers are back, Chris Allen, who caught 17 passes for 247 yards, and Eric Ramos, who grabbed 11 for 185.

Little Mike Magana (5-9, 140) returns at running back, after rushing for 822 yards as a junior. He averaged 6.6 yards per clip. A big transfer from Oklahoma, linebacker Tim Bardin (6-1, 205), should help out on the offensive line or at tight end.

COOLIDGE

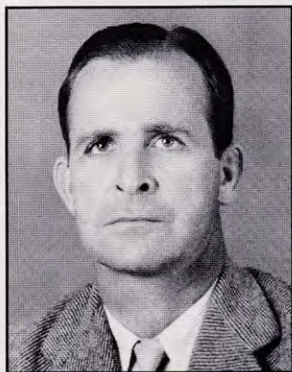

The Bears, like always, will rely on team speed as a weapon. The injury bug bit hard and caused Coolidge to finish 3-6-0. The biggest weapon appears to be little halfback Jeremy Johnson (5-7, 150), a real burner with 4.5 speed. Last fall he carried the ball 114 times for 800 yards and 10 TDs, including a school record 98 yard run against Santa Cruz.

Junior QB Gerald Delores (5-11, 210) saw some action as a soph, hitting 18 of 47 passes for 225 yards and two scores. Speedy little receiver Troy Montgomery caught 18 passes for 250 yards.

Besides signal caller Delores, only one other Bear starter tips the scales at 200 or more pounds, defensive lineman Victor Mendoza (5-9, 210).

SANTA CRUZ

Everything was perfect in Eloy, where the Dust Devils went 13-0 and added another state championship

Glenn Wilson

Memorial services were held in Tucson this summer for one of the most successful football coaches in Arizona's small school prep ranks.

Glenn F. Wilson, 83, of Tucson, died June 8 in Marana. Between 1943 and 1948, at Coolidge, Wilson-coached teams compiled a 38-14-1 mark and won three consecutive Class B titles.

One team, his 1947 squad, lost seven games. But before that season, the Bears won 23 straight games with Wilson at the helm, and it took a Class A school, Mesa, to snap the streak.

Wilson started as an assistant at Coolidge to Edgar "Mutt" Ford, who left in 1943 to coach at Glendale. With Wilson in charge, the Bears didn't skip a beat. He was quick to give his players the credit, and he had some good ones, starting with All-Arizona halfback Jimmie Davis, who still resides in Coolidge.

During his career, Davis scored a school-record 52 touchdowns and 360 points. He was joined in the backfield by the likes of Mack McEuen, Eddie Schell and Wayne Elledge, to name a few. From Chandler, to Florence, to Tucson, the Bears ran all over everybody. They led the state in scoring three years straight.

Wilson later coached 6-man football in Colorado, and was the principal at Page High School in Arizona, between 1960-61. He is survived by two daughters, two sons, 13 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

trophy to the collection. Even though they competed in 2A last year, Coach Jay Denton's speedy crew beat 3A rival Coolidge, 23-18, and blitzed 3A runnerup Miami, 46-14.

Although all-state backs like Kevin Butler, Eddie Cade and Joe Cade have graduated, Eloy still has a rich football tradition to build on. Stocky little guard Pete Lopez (5-5, 200) is one of the best in the 3A ranks. Junior HB/DB Ray Hornsby (6-0, 175) could be another 1,000 yard man. Senior end Matthews Sullivan (6-0, 180) is a solid blocker and receiver.

Big tackle Brandon Warren (6-3, 250) will line up next to little guard Marcos Espinoza (5-8, 160) on the Dust Devils' talented front wall. Senior backs Fred Robinson (5-11, 180), and Melesio Perales (5-10, 175), along with end Damon Hampton (5-11, 175) all have championship game experience.

SAN MANUEL

Coach Mike Brown returns 20 lettermen, 11 starters, from a near-perfect 9-2 club. The Miners also return a flock of all-conference players, plus an all-state receiver in Jason Howard. Howard (5-10, 150) caught 39 passes last fall, and totaled 1,000 yard rushing and receiving. Quarterback Travis Barney (6-2, 155) passed for 1,900 yards and 18 touchdowns. Senior Tony Marquez (5-9, 160) was an all-conference defensive back/wide receiver.

Other Miners to keep an eye on include RB/LB R.J. Jiminez (5-9, 160), guard Anthony Gonzales (6-1, 250) and tackle Ron Decker (6-2, 250).

SAFFORD

Finding a starting QB is Safford's priority in the preseason. Last fall, the Bulldogs finished 6-4, and return 20 squad members from that team. "We do not have a lot of linemen, so a few players will have to go both ways," says Ken Guzik.

Fullback Marshall McBride (5-8, 180), linebacker David Smith (6-0, 185), guard James Romero (5-8, 225) and tackle Rusty Hendrix (6-1, 195) are the only returning starters. Wingback Travis Olsen (5-8, 160), halfback Wayland Carter (5-10, 165) and center Cliff Davis (5-10, 170) were part-time starters.

SAHUARITA

Coach Ron Boyter, new to the Mustangs' program takes over a team which didn't win a varsity game. But the JV squad went 6-2 so help is on the way. "We have a good group of returning seniors with good potential," insists Boyter.

Those seniors includes the likes of running backs Tony Bradley, Cisco Camacho, Eric Hoogerwert and Chris Stichter, who might play quarterback. Bookend guards like Peter Fox and Vic Soto, both 5-10, 185, and giant tackles Jerrod Rossor (6-2, 206) and Mike Ikemiyashiro (5-10, 210) form a solid front wall. One transfer to watch is QB Rusty Glenn, from New Mexico small school power Animas. Last fall, his former school won a state record 69 games in a row.

GLOBE

The Tigers, coached by veteran mentor Paul Petty, finished 7-4 and lost in the second round of the 3A playoffs. However, graduation took a big toll, and only five starters return.

This fall, Globe might have to rely upon junior running backs Elton Dalmolin (5-10, 165) and David Castaneda (6-0, 190) to carry the mail. Guards Marko Kame (6-1, 215), Frank Corkish (6-0, 190) and Andy Marin (5-10, 175) are returning starters.

Junior center Justin McBride (6-2, 200) has lots of potential. Tight end Lenny Burkland (6-0, 180) is quick, and aggressive. Tackle Daniel Dosela (6-3, 248) could be a standout on defense. Wide receiver Paul Padilla (5-9, 155) is a natural athlete.

Remaining Preps Vie For League, State Honors

YUMA CIBOLA

Well, the Raiders have taken the big step up to 5A football, competing in the Fiesta Region versus the likes of St. Mary's and Brophy, both top-notch Phoenix schools.

But coach Tom Lino has a promising club, with 18 lettermen returning from last year's 5-5 varsity, plus some super newcomers up from an undefeated JV.

"We're very excited about making the transition to 5A," says Lino. "The kids have set some lofty goals for themselves."

Three-year starters Gavin Kovisto (5-9, 180) and Brian Ridley (6-1, 225) will show the way. Both are returning all-league performers.

Kovisto is a dynamite strong safety who will also contribute at running back, while Ridley is the best of an outstanding linebacking corps, which also includes Mike Dunstan (6-2, 185), David Jefferies (6-1, 190), Clint Pikula (5-11, 200) and junior Curt Cote (6-2, 200). Craig Williams (5-8, 165) will join Kovisto in the secondary, while junior Charlie Dine (6-3, 210) should be a mainstay in the offensive line.

Additional support from a good junior class should come from linemen Daniel McCloud and Richard Butz, as well as from skill players like Carlos Ozuna and Justin Pierce.

YUMA KOFA

Another school from Yuma competing in the 5A ranks is Kofa, a team that struggled to a lowly 1-8-1 mark last year. Coach Don Klostreich is looking for major improvement this time out as his guys battle in the Desert Valley Region.

His best returnee figures to be his son – Brian Klostreich, a 5-11, 210-pound all-league running back-linebacker. He can play. The Kings aren't blessed with great size overall, but watch for Cliff Ross (5-9, 165), Hermos Soto (5-8, 165, Jr.) and Jose Plaza (5-10, 185, Jr.) to also tote the pigskin.

Senior Frank Castro (5-9, 150) looks to be Kofa's best receiver, while additional help should come from defensive backs Brady Olson (5-8, 150), Randy Dorsey (6-2, 185), Robert Montana (6-0, 165) and Chris Harris (6-0, 170, Jr.).

Playing time in the trenches belongs to the likes of Russ Thom (6-1, 190), John Ullery (6-1, 220), Eric Lohman (6-0, 185, Jr.), Robert Viether (6-0, 175) and Craig Schmitt (6-3, 215, Jr.).

YUMA

The Criminals are now competing in the 4A East Sky Region, featuring Coronado, Tempe and Alhambra. But don't sell the Criminals short.

Keilon Bradford, Rhett Stallworth and Larry Davis are big-time players and this team could be highly competitive.

Bradford is a 6-1, 185-pound senior running back who churned for over 500 yards on the ground in '90. Stallworth is a standout two-way player who will play fullback on offense and anchor the defense from his linebacking post. He's a physical player at 6-1 and 240 pounds. Davis (6-3, 215) is a talented tight end who could shine on defense too.

Wide receiver-safety Mike Solomon and quarterback-defensive back Brock Amon could make valuable contributions, if both can come back from injuries suffered last year.

CASA GRANDE

Coach Mike Hayhurst at Casa Grande is optimistic that his Cougars could have another good campaign in '91. They weren't bad a year ago, winning six, losing four and tying one while advancing to the 4A state playoffs. Seventeen letterwinners are back from that group, including seniors Jesus Sanchez (6-0, 175, RB), Eric Fossen (5-9, 155, WR), William Rhodes (6-3, 190, TE) and David Tipton (6-0, 240, OT). Juniors to watch are quarterback Tommy Fudge (5-11, 180), lineman Mike Uhrich (6-2, 215), center Cade Clapp (5-11, 220) and linebacker Jeff Horton (6-2, 204).

FLORENCE

1990 was definitely an off year for the Gophers, as key injuries hurt Tom Shoemake and his team. Instead of competing for the 2A Central Region title and the state championship, Florence finished with just a 2-7 ledger.

But 22 lettermen – including 16 starters – will attempt to get back on the right track. It all begins with quarterback Robert Ramirez (5-11, 175), who threw for 900 yards last year, and running back Ned Osborn, who ran for 500 yards as a soph before transferring to Phoenix Camelback.

With Osborn back, the running game should be fine. Other ballcarriers of note are Clay Cordova (5-9, 180, Jr.), Chris George (5-11, 170, Jr.) and David Cluff (6-0, 170, So.). The number one receiver could be split end Zeek Smith (5-9, 160, Jr.).

Stalwarts up front are Adam Slaughter (6-1, 250, So.), Arthur Granillo (5-10, 185) and William Neff (5-11, 218). Defensively, linebacker Eddie Perez (5-7, 160) and safety Tim Smith (6-2, 180) have the talent and experience to get the job done.

TOMBSTONE

"We should be in the top three of the 2A East," says coach Steve Reeder. His Yellowjackets have eight returning starters, all seniors.

In the offensive backfield, tailback Justin Arnold (6-2, 210) and quarterback Ramon Rodriguez (6-0, 165) are formidable. Tight end Andrell Harden (6-1, 170) is an asset in the passing game.

There's also some key veterans returning in the offensive line, namely tackles Jamie Kahley (6-0, 170), Bryan Sullivan (6-3, 190) and center Chris Saenz (5-11, 190).

When the other team has the ball, defensive backs Joe Castillo (6-0, 165) and Juan Baldgrama (5-8, 160) are steady performers.

WILLCOX

Also competing for top honors in the 2A East are the Willcox Cowboys, a squad that took eight wins in 10 decisions last year.

Back for coach Michael McCahan is back Ryan Bavavides, a 5-8, 145-pound sparkplug who contributed 1500 yards rushing and 108 points to the cause last year.

He'll be supported by 17 additional lettermen, headed by back Robert Rodriguez (5-10, 175, Jr.), linemen David Regnies (6-2, 200), Dan Regnies (6-2, 210) and Jerry McCahan (5-11, 170). If the Cowboys can rebuild their defense, watch out!

TOMBSTONE

Of course, the Eagles will also compete for the 2A East crown, as long as Ernie Montez is in uniform. This remarkable running back has merely rushed for 3,768 yards in his brilliant career to date.

Also back from coach Ed Shamey's 9-3 unit is QB Alex Polk, SE Alex Romero, DB Boyd Brown, DB Steven Mullenau, OL C.J. French, DL Mike Goodman, OL Kenny Green, DL Patrick Welton, LB Brad Houelia and SE Randall Claridge.

"We should have a good year," understates Shamey.

BENSON

Things are looking up at Benson, where 20 veterans are back from a .500 club of a year ago.

Headliners for coach Terry Reeves include offensive sparkplugs Max

Smith (5-10, 170, RB), Branden Young (5-10, 175, SE) and Shad Housely (6-1, 160, QB). Smith ran for 820 yards; Housely threw for eight scores; and Young grabbed four TD passes last fall.

Also be aware of LB J.J. Benson (5-10, 190), T Ricky Reyes (6-2, 260), C Jamie Mendivil (6-2, 200), OG Nasib Maluff (5-8, 160), TE Cobb Vashaw (5-9, 170) and TE Robert Ruiz (5-9, 170).

PIMA

Eugene Kramer is the new coach at Pima, where the Roughriders must overcome a tough 0-7-2 campaign of a year ago.

Among the dozen returnees are quarterback Kevin Bryce and linebacker Mario Chavez, both senior leaders.

Also lending a hand are LB Troy Judd, DE Wyatt Hinton, WR Brandon Rios, CB Justin McBride, OG Lon Mathews, RB Doug Stewart, RB Emery Whitmire and DT Robert Larson. Kramer expects his defense to make some big plays.

BISBEE

"With eight starters back on offense and seven on defense, we should be one of the top teams in the league," says coach Fred Ciacoletti. That's still the brutal 2A East we're talking about.

If so, the Pumas will count on QB Andy Deford (5-10, 160), WR Ralph Hiraes (5-10, 160, Jr.), OT Jim Breckenridge (6-4, 230), OT Miguel Hernandez (6-1, 245, Jr.), OG Rich Morales (5-9, 215, Jr.) and DE Oscar Harris (5-9, 175) to help turn around last year's 3-7 mark.

Altogether, 23 varsity veterans are back and raring to go for Bisbee.

MORENCI

Former Wildcat great and ASU standout Reynaldo Peru takes over at his alma mater as this club attempts to recapture some of its rich tradition.

And Peru might be the right man for the job. Of course, coming back from a 1-9 season isn't easy, but there are 22 letterwinners on hand to reach for success.

Among the returnees are running backs Brian Miller (5-10, 160), Andrew Chavez (5-9, 160), Joey Aguinaga (5-7, 155) and quarterback Chris Murillo (5-9, 145).

Peru is also counting on some physical play from linemen Brandon Siqueiros (5-10, 175), Ryan Henry (5-11, 185), Jason Tucker (5-10, 155), Lance Hill (5-11, 160, Jr.), Brandon Sexton (5-10, 190) and Alfred Montoy (5-7, 175). Don't count these guys out of the 2A East race either.

GILA BEND

The Gila Monsters are members of the 2A West Region and they're looking for a winning season this fall. Gila Bend was just 3-6 in a rebuilding campaign last year.

Coach Lad Dietrich is optimistic, since he has 19 lettermen – including nine starters – back from '90. In fact, Dietrich took his lumps last year by starting four freshmen and three sophomores, but he's hoping the experience gained will pay dividends over the next few years.

His signal caller is soph Lucio Villegas (6-1, 160), who threw for 850 yards last year. The primary runners should be Delson Gonzalez (5-10, 180, Jr.) and Gabriel Alvarez (5-10, 175, So.), who will also join forces as linebackers on defense. Receivers Chuck Cavanaugh (5-11, 170, Jr.), Robert Aguilar (5-9, 150, Jr.) and Gustavo Rayguza (5-11, 175) are certainly capable.

Rounding out the anticipated leaders are OG Manny Ochoa (6-2, 255), DT Brian Hacker (5-9, 175), OG Mario Gonzalez (5-10, 180, So.), LB Brandon Mendez (5-10, 160, So.) and DT Ricky Gonzalez (5-9, 160, So.).

PATAGONIA

Certainly one of the favorites at the 1A level are the Lobos from Patagonia. Twenty-five lettermen are back from last year's 8-3 club.

Top-notch rusher Ruben Gallardo (5-9, 140) is a leader for coach Bill House. Other mainstays are C Bill Jarman, G Isaac Mongie, E Frank Grinillo, G Davy Urquides, DB Justin McLeod, RB Hermon Montiel and LB Shane Skinner.
